

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE COMMISSION
ISLE OF PALMS WATER & SEWER COMMISSION
OCTOBER 25, 2025

---

In accordance with the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act, the Agenda was posted on Wednesday, October 22, 2025, at the Commission Office, and provided to The Post and Courier. The special meeting was held on Saturday, October 25, 2025, at the Forest Trails Wastewater Treatment Plant at 4008 Waterway Boulevard on the Isle of Palms, SC, for the new plant dedication ceremony.

Attending were Chairman Bob Hooper, Vice Chairman Jeff Forslund, Commissioner Curtis Helfrich, PE, Commissioner Jay Leigh, General Manager Chris Jordan, Special Projects Administrator Bill Jenkins, Operations Manager Shorty Meade, Engineer Mark Yodice, Attorney Jennifer Blumenthal, special guest and former Chairman Dana Love, PE, and members of the public.

Chairman Hooper called the special meeting to order at 11:04 a.m. and welcomed the guests to the plant dedication ceremony. After opening remarks, Chairman Hooper announced that the plant is being named in honor of former Commission Chairman Dana Love. Next, General Manager Jordan spoke about the honoree's illustrious career and his dedicated service to the Commission. Chairman Hooper then introduced Mr. Love, who thanked everyone for this honor and regaled the audience with stories of his career in the water and wastewater industry and his time on the Isle of Palms. Next, Chairman Hooper invited Commissioner Helfrich to speak. Commissioner Helfrich, with props in hand, spoke about Mr. Love's vision for the wastewater treatment plant, and the results – clear water, safe enough to drink – were astounding. Chairman Hooper concluded the meeting with the formal naming of the new plant – the Dana W. Love, Jr. Forest Trails Wastewater Treatment Facility.

Chairman Hooper invited the commissioners, special guests, and members of the public to stay for a guided tour of the plant and refreshments following the ceremony.

The special meeting was adjourned by Chairman Hooper at approximately 12:04 p.m.
